Safeway Efforts Helped Growers Of Strawberries

California's strawberry growers this year will receive better prices and a wider distribution of their product because of the direct assistance given them by Safeway Stores, Inc., it was announced here today.

The market for California berries comprises nine western states and Safeway through its facilities has been able to help these producers move large quantities for immediate public consumption, according to J. P. O'Loughlin, assistant divisional manager of the Safeway Stores in San Francisco.

A greater yield to the berry growers this season was made possible, he said, because of Safeway's direct producer-to-consumer method of distribution.

"Safeway's direct line distribution plan," he continued, "eliminates many unnecessary handling charges, and as a consequence we are able to pass back to the producer a larger portion of what the consumer pays for farm commodities."

"The California berry growers were threatened with a price decline but when Safeway started to buy in large quantities and pay producers top prices the market became stabilized. At the same time retail prices were kept on an economical basis throughout the west."

"Safeway buyers routed many carloads of berries to consume markets in California, Oregon, Washington, Montana, Colorado, Utah, Idaho, Arizona and New Mexico."

Gibson, Poss To Run Fiesta; Plans Pushed

S. F. Abandons Plans To Stage Autumn Floral Display

Plans for San Mateo county's second annual Floral and Products Fiesta moved ahead swiftly Wednesday after all difficulties over management, which had threatened the staging of the fair this year, were smoothed out at a reorganization meeting and San Francisco interests announced they would abandon preparations to hold a flower show there.

Chief developments at the reorganization meeting, held in San Mateo Tuesday night, were:

1. Election of Bruce Gibson of San Mateo as show president.
2. Adoption of a tentative budget calling for anticipated expenditures of $21,715, and an anticipated revenue of $22,617.71.
3. A guarantee from the board of supervisors of a $10,000 appropriation for expenses to be used as "working capital."
4. Naming of Martin Poss, Burlingame, as manager of the fiesta.

OTHER OFFICERS

Other officers named were: Judge C. A. Shurtleff, Menlo Park, first vice-president; Mrs. F. M. Perkins, Redwood City, second vice-president; County Executive Walter T. Kellogg, third vice-president; Chester L. Lipman, Burlingame, secretary; Elmer Roberts, Burlingame, treasurer. An assistant to Poss will be named later.

The show will open on October 8 and will run for three days, according to plans announced by Gibson.

Gibson also said he had received a letter this morning from General Manager G. V. Smith of the Fairmont and Mark Hopkins hotels that the proposed San Francisco show would be abandoned so as to avoid conflict with the San Mateo fiesta.

GROWERS ENTHUSIASTIC

Enthusiastically stating that "everything is rosy now," Gibson said that he and Poss had contacted 15 or 20 county growers and that the exhibitors were ready to participate in the fiesta.

Believing that the fiesta in October will draw nearly twice as many people as those that attended last year's show, the fiesta directorate estimated that $16,000 will be taken in from admissions alone. Trade displays, year book advertising, cash prizes and the $2,601.71 due from the state will bring the estimated revenue to a total of $22,617.71, compared with a revenue of $12,501.30 last year.

EXPENSES LISTED

Major items in the expense budget include a salary of $1200 for the show's manager; $1000 for an assistant manager; $7000 for show construction; $3000 for publicity; $1300 for year book and program, and $500 for parade.

County Executive Kellogg said that profits made on the fiesta this year will be placed in a fiesta fund to help pay costs of the annual shows.

'THESE THREE' HERE SUNDAY

"These Three," an adaptation of the stage play, "The Children's Hour," will be shown starting Sunday for five days at the Redwood Theater. This scene is from the four-star picture which stars Joel McCrea, Miriam Hopkins and Merle Oberon. Sunday there will be a continuous show starting at 1:30 p.m.

Ziegfeld Story Opens at Varsity Theatre Monday

"The Great Ziegfeld," heralded as the greatest picture to come out of Hollywood in a decade, opens at the Fox Varsity Theatre in Palo Alto on Monday afternoon, for a two-day engagement at reserved seat prices.

This picture comes as a road show, with no cuts from the original print. Reserved seats are now on sale at the Varsity Theatre box office and phone and mail orders are being filled daily.

Contrary to public opinion, "The Great Ziegfeld" is not only a picture bringing to light for the first time the splendor and the beauty of the Ziegfeld Follies themselves, it is also a tender and beautiful story of the greatest man in show business, and his family, from the early days when Ziegfeld featured Sandow the strong man on the zone of the first Chicago's World Fair, to the time he had four shows running on Broadway at the same time.

$50,000 Damages Asked in Car Death

For death of Timothy Hallahan Jr., $50,000.

This figure is what Margaret Roche, Millie Sullivan, Timothy Hallahan Sr. and Daniel, Nora, Patrick and John Hallahan ask for damages inflicted on the plaintiffs by the "wrongful death" of Timothy Hallahan Jr., of San Francisco, killed February 2 on El Camino Real at the intersection of Junipero Serra highway.

The plaintiffs charged Giovanni Carrato and E. B. Serpenti with "careless and negligent" driving in running down Hallahan. The case was on file today in superior court. The plaintiffs' attorneys are Vincent W. Hallinan and Emmett Burns.

Fossil bones, when found, are studied, photographed and prepared before removing.

Earl Green, Uvalde, Tex., roped a live hawk while riding a horse. It had been attacking sheep.

Coroner Holds
Gardener Plain
Case of Suicide

PALO ALTO, June 10. — Convicted that David Sanguinetti, 50-year-old gardener at former President Hoover's campus home, came to his death by suicide, Coroner C. C. Spaulding said today there would be no need of an inquest.

The body of Sanguinetti, who lived in Menlo Park, was found in the basement of the Hoover home by servants, who said they heard a noise in the basement. The mortally wounded man was lying in a pool of blood, a rusty revolver by his side. Servants said the man had been acting queerly for a month.

However, Sanguinetti's wife, here, mother of two children, Ruth, 9, and David Jr., 7, declared that since her husband was not used to handling guns she believed he might have shot himself accidentally while cleaning the revolver.

Funeral services for Sanguinetti are being arranged by the Tinney parlors in Palo Alto.

Mrs. Stanley Dollar

SAN MATEO, June 8. — John Bakariza, Watsonville trucker, was seriously injured this afternoon when his truck allegedly was sideswiped by a machine driven by Mrs. Stanley Dollar, wife of the steamship magnate, and was overturned on the Bayshore highway.

LUTJE KILLED
UNDER WHEELS
OF UTAH TRAIN

Apparently the victim of a fall under a freight train, William Lutje, Jr., 29-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lutje of 823 Arguello street, was killed instantly Sunday morning at Wendover, Utah.

Lutje, who until seven months ago, lived in Redwood City where he worked for the Frank tannery, was employed as a member of a Western Pacific crew painting a railroad hotel. Sheriff Elliott of Wendover told the Associated Press that he believed Lutje tried to board a moving westbound freight train, and fell under the wheels. His body was dragged 500 feet. It was badly mangled.

J. J. Duigan, trainmaster at Elko, Nev., railroad division point, was making an investigation.

Young Lutje, who is survived by his wife, Dolores, of San Francisco, was a native of Redwood City, and had lived here most of his life, although he attended Lick Wilderling High School in San Francisco. He was the eldest son of the Lutjes. The father is a member of the Redwood City Fire Department force.

Also left to mourn the young man's passing are three sisters, Gladys Lutje and Mrs. Delilah Bush of Redwood City and Mrs. Beatrice Reynolds of San Mateo, and two brothers, Clyde and Alvin, of Redwood City.

SAN MATEO, June 10. — City Manager E. P. 'Bon Voyage' Bid Graduates

Drive Toward Haven Urged on Seniors By Clergyman

Bidding them "good cheer on their voyage," the Rev. Charles H. Gatchell Monday night addressed a representative group of about half the Sequoia graduating class and parents and friends in the annual senior service in the high school auditorium.

"You are launched on a great Sea of Life," the Rev. Mr. Gatchell told the graduates in his address on "Launched But Not Anchored." "You are on your way, but you don't know what the haven shall be."

Encouraging the graduates by asserting he believed that "tomorrow will be a better day," and that the "new task will be easier," the minister nevertheless warned the young people that "if you can't get what you like, it is good to like what you get."

Comparing their problems to those which confronted the Biblical Nebuchadnezzar, the minister asserted there would be attempts made to divert them from their goals by ridicule, flattery, threats.

But with trust in the Divine Being, "he who alone is the captain of our souls," to "guide us over uncharted seas," and by maintaining great ideals, hopes and devotion, the graduates can achieve their places in the world and at the same time benefit humankind, the clergyman declared.

"We can do what we want to do if we want to do it strongly enough," he said.

He urged that particular attention be given to combating crime, which he said is costing 12 billions of dollars annually.

Other ministers of the Sequoia high school district participated in the union service, and the senior chorus and a chorus of senior girls, both directed by Otis M. Carrington, provided special music.

JUDGE COTTON FILES PAPERS IN CAMPAIGN

Bar Backing, Record Cited By Jurist For Election

Formal announcement of candidacy of Superior Judge Aylett R. Cotton to succeed himself was made Wednesday as he filed nomination papers with the county clerk.

Judge Cotton, who was elevated to the bench February 5, 1925, following death of Judge Franklin Swart, to serve until January 1, 1937, is backed by endorsements of many members of the county bar and other prominent citizens.

When appointed by Governor Merriam to the bench, Judge Cotton was serving as mayor of San Mateo, where he had lived 30 years. He had practiced law nearly 40 years.

Judge Cotton is the son of a man who crossed the plains during the gold rush of 1849, and later served as congressman from Iowa after returning from the West. The family returned to California in 1883.

First student to complete the entire course at Stanford University, Judge Cotton attended Hastings Law College, receiving his degree there in 1896. He then practiced law in San Francisco; in 1900 he went to Manila to become law clerk and Spanish translator for the late William Howard Taft, who later became president and then chief justice. In 1904 Judge Cotton was mayor of Iloilo in the Philippine Islands, serving until former President Roosevelt named him prosecuting attorney of Manila.

In 1907 Judge Cotton returned

JUDGE A. R. COTTON

to this country, in the same year marrying Alice Borel, member of a pioneer county family. To the union one son, Aylett Borel Cotton, was born. He is a law student at Stanford. In 1910 Judge Cotton was made chief assistant district attorney for San Francisco, holding that post for 10 years before relinquishing it to devote his entire time to private practice.

Judge Cotton has been active in civic and fraternal life, being a member of the Masons, Elks, Scottish Rite bodies, Kiwanis and La Fayette clubs, Society of California Pioneers, Sons of the American Revolution, P. T. A. and other organizations. He is a director of the Menlo School and Junior College.

During his less than one and a half years on the bench, Judge Cotton has handled more than 3,000 cases, an average of more than 10 daily for the court year.

Harold Varni Monday near Belmont for speeding, were found to be driving an allegedly stolen machine. Brought to the county jail, Glenn made a break for freedom when the patrolman stopped his car.

Carpenter Dies Of Heart Attack While in Surf

HALF MOON BAY, June 8.—Stricken with a heart attack while swimming 25 yards out in the surf at Martin Beach, Joseph Larsen, 55-year-old carpenter of 1236 San Antonio street, San Jose, died before help could reach him shortly before noon yesterday.

With James Maruska and Paul Gatchell of San Jose, Larsen, who leaves a wife and four children, had come to the beach to fish. Desiring to take a swim before lunch, he went into the surf. He was seen by many of the nearly 100 picnickers to wave his hands as if asking help, and then to sink. Deputy Coroner Victor Golla said he was informed.

Setting out immediately in a boat, Robert Remley of San Francisco and Eddie Watt and Robert Murdock of Martin Beach retrieved the body, which was being tossed by the waves. Dr. F. A. Steele was summoned immediately, and though he worked over the man for nearly an hour, he was unable to revive him. An autopsy showed he had died of a heart attack.

One hundred sixty of Missouri University's 40,000 graduates live in the Orient, and more than 500 are in foreign countries, an alumni survey showed.

Menlans Plan Wider Santa Cruz Avenue

MENLO PARK, June 10.—Action to widen Santa Cruz avenue throughout the business district may be undertaken by Menlo Park if the city attorney reports favorably on a proposal of the planning commission made at its regular meeting here last night.

The commission would seek to establish set-back lines of between 15 and 20 feet.

Congestion at the Santa Cruz "bottle-neck" intersection would be relieved and realty values bettered, Commissioner J. H. Sullivan asserted.

The commission also ordered its secretary, George Nesbit to query the state highway commission on the possibility of its undertaking similar widening of El Camino Real.

Dairy experts expect that more milk will be produced in the 12 months ending with June, 1936, than in any corresponding period on record.

BURLINGAME WOMAN DIES

BURLINGAME, June 8.—Death yesterday called Mrs. Clarisse Henry Boyden, wife of Bert F. Boyden of 1431 Monterey street; mother of Bernice Fisher Henry and sister of Josephine E. Fisher and Mrs. Lawrence O'Neill of San Jose, J. H. and W. E. Fisher of Honolulu. Private funeral services will be held at the Snider parlors tomorrow.

PROPER LIGHTING

costs so little

EYESIGHT IS PRICELESS

The Better Sight table lamp pictured to the left gives you generous light over the entire surface of table and desk. In addition it throws enough light upward and throughout the room to get rid of eye-straining shadows.

LIGHT that is safe for grown-up eyes is not always safe for children's eyes. Young eyes are still growing; gaining strength. That is why eyestrain caused by reading or studying in poor light may lead to eye trouble in later years. Proper lighting helps healthy eye development just as proper food builds sturdier bodies.

The new Better Sight lamps give ample, soft, diffused light that promotes comfortable seeing and protects eyesight. Buy one of these better lamps today.

Check up on the lighting in your home. Fill the empty sockets and replace old lamps with new so that you will always have good light when you read or study.

Good light never was so cheap. Lamp bulbs today are twice as efficient—give twice as much light as they did in 1921. And they cost 66% less. Then, too, the Reduced Electric Rates mean Good Lighting is Cheaper than ever before.
